

I find it extremely unusual that a small group of five commissioners can decide public policy in this most critical area. I resent this deeply. There is evidence that ownership of the media is becoming centralized. And yet, goddamnit, these are public airways. and the FCC is allowing for a monopoly to take place. More Republican bullshit.